

Contents

- 1 Introduction: Just what is happening to Vancouver?
- 2 Vancouver: Brought to you courtesy of the Canadian Pacific Railway

Part I Downtown 19

- 3 Who is Downtown for?
- 4 Downtown decision-makers I: The multi-nationals
- 5 Downtown decision-makers II: The banks
- 6 The Royal Bank: Portrait of a Canadian chartered bank
- 7 Downtown decision-makers III: Vancouver's business establishment
- 8 The Royal's Vancouver directors: Integrating the local business establishment
- 9 Downtown decision-makers IV: The developers
- 10 Trizec: Portrait of a downtown developer
- 11 Downtown decision-makers V: Foreign property investors
- 12 Bentall Centre: Case study of a downtown development
- 13 The pattern of downtown development: Boom and bust

Part II Next Door to Downtown 72

- 14 Waterfront politics in Vancouver
- 15 The Bayshore Inn and Coal Harbour: A case study in Waterfront corporate giveaways
- 16 False Creek and Marathon Realty: The CPR's next deal

Part III Housing 90

- 17 Introduction: Housing for whom?
- 18 The West End: Developers' paradise
- 19 Kitsilano: Neighbourhood in transition
- 20 Richmond: Bedroom suburb
- 21 Who is responsible for the housing crisis? CMHC
- 22 Who is responsible for the housing crisis? The province
- 23 Who is responsible for the housing crisis? The Greater Vancouver Regional District
- 24 Who is responsible for the housing crisis? Daon Development Corp.
- 25 Who is responsible for the housing crisis? Genstar

Part IV City Hall 138

- 26 The politicians: TEAM and the NPA
- 27 City Hall bureaucrats and planners
- 28 TEAM in power

Part V Citizen Opposition: The Record 151

- 29 The Chinatown Freeway fight
- 30 The Strathcona urban renewal fight
- 31 The Third Crossing

32 The Four Seasons issue: Victory and defeat

Part VI Challenging the Developers 161

33 Co-op housing

34 Credit Unions

35 Van City: Portrait of Canada's largest credit union

36 Organizing

37 Direct action: Pre-emption and squatting

38 Political Action